CAMPUS CONSTRUCTION

Mexico Campus Multipurpose Building being primed for paint.

Work on the Mexico Campus multipurpose building continues. Volunteer Pete Beal completed all the carpentry for the restroom divisions and on March 16th a group of 25 from Florida Christian College, led by professor Jim Chesser, applied primer to two of the exterior walls of the building. Colegio students are now trimming the windows. Thank you all for the materials and your hard work!

CLASS OF 2007

This coming May 11th, twelve of our students will be celebrating the completion of their studies in a graduation ceremony. Three of the graduating seniors are from the Eagle Pass Campus and nine from the Mexico Campus. Please keep them in your prayers!

Dentists on Campus

Dentists from Brownsville, Texas. Cindy Wackholz, Denise & Gerry Beauchemin.

On March 19th - 23rd, a team of three dentists came to Colegio to do volunteer work. Gerry Beauchemin, his wife Denise, and Cindy Wackholz from Brownsville, Texas, gave dental attention to our students, faculty, and children on both campuses. During three days of work, they provided 47 exams, oral hygiene instruction and toothbrushes, 15 cleanings, 30 fluoride applications, 10 sealants, 45 fillings and 2 extractions. Many thanks to our friends for all their work!

In Memoriam

March 18, Eagle Pass, Texas. Martha Hope Cary passed away at the age of 55. Martha had been struggling with health problems for several weeks. She was the youngest daughter of Colegio founders Harland and Frances Cary. Martha is survived by her parents, three brothers, a sister and many nieces and nephews. The funeral services took place on March 21st and 22nd where friends and family expressed their love for her and shared good memories. Please keep the Cary family in your prayers.
