

UPDATE

Colegio Biblico • January 2008 • Eagle Pass, TX

New Professor

We are thankful that beginning this Spring semester, Daniel Llamas will be teaching at our Mexico Campus. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Theology in 1998 from Colegio Cristiano del Centro in San Luis Potosí, SLP, Mexico. In 2004 he graduated from Cincinnati Christian University with a Master of Arts in Ministry. Daniel ministered for nine years at Iglesia de Cristo Lomas in San Luis Potosí. He and his wife Claudia have three daughters. We welcome Daniel and his family to the Colegio family and pray his teaching ministry will be a great blessing.

Christmas Dinner and Gifts

On December 14, Colegio Biblico students, faculty and staff gathered to celebrate Christmas with a traditional dinner. A choir of children participated with Christmas songs and gifts were handed out to all the students and children. Thank you very much to those of you who sent Christmas gifts:

- U.S. Lester
- Ricky Long
- Norm & Doris Russell
- Women's Missionary Guild

Construction is Over!!!

Exterior and interior of the new multipurpose building.

We are thankful to God for all the support we received from all of you so we could finish the construction of the 9,000 sq.ft. multipurpose building on our Mexico Campus. This is quite an accomplishment considering Colegio only operates on an available funds basis, which means we build only according to how donations allow.
