On June 2nd, a group of 10 people from Cornerstone Christian Church in Effingham, Illinois, arrived at Colegio. Led by minister Kevin Colclasure, the group worked priming two sides and painting the whole exterior of the Mexico Campus multipurpose building. One of the adults, Eleanor Bounds, helped us in the office sending Updates and preparing our annual Pack the Pantry mailing. Our gratitude to our friends for the time they dedicated to serve and for all their hard work!

Summer Events

While our students are away from campus for the summer, they continue to collaborate with churches in Mexico and Texas as part of the Christian service required by Colegio Biblico.

Members of our faculty and staff will be on the road throughout the summer. They will visit supporting churches, recruit new students, and represent Colegio Biblico in events such as the North American Christian Convention, the Hispanic Christian Convention and the Mexican Christian Convention.

Work on campus will continue as well with the help of four work teams from Illinois, Oklahoma, Washington, and Texas that are scheduled for the summer months
