This year's Bilingual Christian Convention, "Letting Jesus Shine in You," took place February 28 - March 2 at Colegio Biblico. Our guest speakers were Sergio Alvarado from Dallas, Texas, and Kevin Pigg from Choctaw, Oklahoma. Around 450 people attended this year's convention from the United States (Alabama, California, Colorado, Indiana, Illinois, Texas) and México (Aguascalientes, Coahuila, Chihuahua, Nuevo Leon, San Luis Potosí). The speakers challenged the audience with their great messages and everyone rejoiced with the congregational singing, special music and fellowship. For the first time, Convention activities took place on both campuses. Services on Saturday and Sunday night were held at the Mexico Campus new multipurpose building, where many of our brothers and sisters from the Piedras Negras churches joined us in a communion service the final night. Thank you so much to everyone who made the Bilingual Convention possible!

How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity! Psalm 133:1

Alumni & Friends Banquet

On March 1st, a banquet was served in Eagle Pass for alumni and friends of the college. Around 60 people attended and shared in a time of fellowship with a meal and a brief message by President Jorge E. Mercado emphasizing the importance and great need for Hispanic Evangelism. Many thanks to our students for all their work preparing the delicious food and to Mary Lee Beal for her job decorating.

Trustees Meeting

Trustees and Administrators met on the Eagle Pass Campus on February 28th for their first meeting of the year. Pictured here are: Ed Skidmore, Tom Fife, Don Beach, Jorge Mercado, Keith Corum and Gus Morgan in the back row, and Gonzalo Flores, Lonnie Pacheco, Ron Key, and Dan Villarreal in the front.

For the first time ever, the annual Alumni Reunion has taken place during the Bilingual Christian Convention. The activities took place all day on Sunday, March 2nd, at the Mexico Campus multipurpose building, starting with breakfast, worship and preaching of the Word. The alumni also participated in a workshop and had an Alumni Association meeting where new officers were elected: Gonzalo Flores, Marcos Northrup, Malena Northrup, and Velia Chavez. Everyone enjoyed the time they spent together remembering their college years and sharing their experiences in ministry. It was good to have them all on campus once again!
