The graduation ceremony took place at the Mexico Campus multi-purpose building. Friends and family of the graduating class, as well as members of the area churches, were in attendance to share in the festivities. Each student had an opportunity to say a few words of thanksgiving for their time and learning experience at Colegio. Afterwards, Academic Dean Gonzalo Flores delivered the commencement address and President Jorge E. Mercado presented each graduate with their diploma. Please keep the class of 2007 in your prayers, that our Lord may use them to His glory in the ministries where they will be serving.
