College Presidents of the Christian Churches and Churches of Christ

College Presidents Meet in Dallas

On April 10th and 11th, Colegio Biblico president, Jorge Mercado attended an unprecedented reunion. 18 of the College Presidents from the Christian Church and Church of Christ met in Dallas for a time of fellowship. A strong desire for partnership and unity among our colleges and churches was expressed. The presidents hope to break the 100 year old separation that has existed between both groups as they work together in different areas of ministry. Dusty Rubec, president of Dallas Christian College, and Royce Money, president of Abilene Christian University, hosted this event.
