Musical Afternoon

In the Mexico Campus elective music classes like guitar and keyboard are offered in the afternoon. Here are a few of our students in class or just practicing.

Clockwise from top: Sarahí Mancinas (Senior) practicing piano, Marco A. Becerra and Ricardo Peral (Sophomores) in guitar class, Gustavo González (Junior) playing guitar, Patricia Robles and Sandra Pérez (Seniors) in keyboard class.

Pass it on!

Colegio Biblico needs to broaden its donor base to effectively cover costs of operations. CB is a vital and very worthy cause. Please share your heart for Colegio Biblico with your friends, family, and church. Invite them to join us in making a difference in Spanish evangelism for the glory of God's Kingdom!

Martha Lucía Pulido

Martha Lucía Pulido Barragán is a first year Sacred Literature student at Colegio Biblico. At 28 years of age, she's the oldest in a family of four children, and the first one to know the Lord. Originally from Uruapan, Michoacán, Lucy lived in the United States on her own for ten years, most recently in San Jose, California. She had experienced a very difficult home life in Michoacán and was now living far from the Lord. In His grace, God used his people to reach out to Lucy and she gave her life to Him. She then started to worship and serve at Green Valley Christian Church in San Jose where she met missionary to Mexico, Bro. Gil Contreras. He challenged Lucy to return to Mexico and dedicate four years to the Lord in preparation for ministry. With only a couple years in the Christian life, Lucy decided to go; she recognized the Lord's calling and the need for her to share the Good News with those she loved. Lucy is having to adjust to her new life but is completely up for the challenge, knowing that God is molding her and preparing her for what is to come. With an upbeat personality and a genuine smile, Lucy is grateful for the opportunity she has to be at Colegio Biblico and hopes to finish her studies and later minister to those who are still living in the world she left behind.

Work Team & Construction

Work Group from Roy Christian Church in Roy, Utah. Interior of Mexico Campus Multipurpose Building.

A group of eight from Roy Christian Church, Roy, Utah arrived in Eagle Pass on October 10th. Led by youth minister Daniel Daugherty, the team has been working at the Mexico Campus multipurpose building. They have been painting the ceiling and interior walls of the kitchen area as well as applying stucco to the outside walls of the building. Our gratitude for all their hard work!
