A total of 12 new students arrived this semester- seven of them to Piedras Negras and five to Eagle Pass. The convocation ceremony was held at the Mexico Campus after the first day of classes where Professor Daniel Llamas delivered the sermon and President Jorge E. Mercado declared the school year officially begun.

PRAISE:

- Five Student Visas were granted this semester!
- Staff and Students had a safe summer and arrival to campus.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- U.S. authorities to grant student visas to applicants from Colombia (2) and Haiti (1).
- God's providing to cover cost of operations
- Funds to provide for our students' needs
- Wisdom and serving hearts for our staff
- The fruit of the Spirit to be shown in our students

But the wisdom
that comes from heaven
is first of all pure;
then peace-loving,
considerate, submissive,
full of mercy
and good fruit,
impartial and sincere.

Student Reception

On September 5, students, faculty and staff gathered at the Mexico Campus for the annual Student Reception. Everyone shared a time of fellowship over dinner and the freshman class had a time to introduce themselves, share their goals, and tell of how they decided to come to Colegio. The class of 2012 is made up of 14 students; 12 that are new and two that are second-semester. Please keep Colegio students and faculty in your prayers!

NEW STUDENTS ON CAMPUS

This year's new students come from Chile (Jaime Cartes & Karina Nuñez), Colombia (Dilma Carrero) and Nicaragua (José Poveda & Tania Salmerón) to Eagle Pass. And from four Mexican states come Edgar Guevara, Alejandro Espíndola, Vanneza García, Deisi Molina, Wendy Molina, and Caleb & Ana Northrup to Piedras Negras. Please pray for these students as they adjust to this new stage in their lives away from home, that they will make the most of this opportunity to prepare for ministry.
